

Introduction: AUN-TEPL Resource-sharing Community

Lieven Demeester

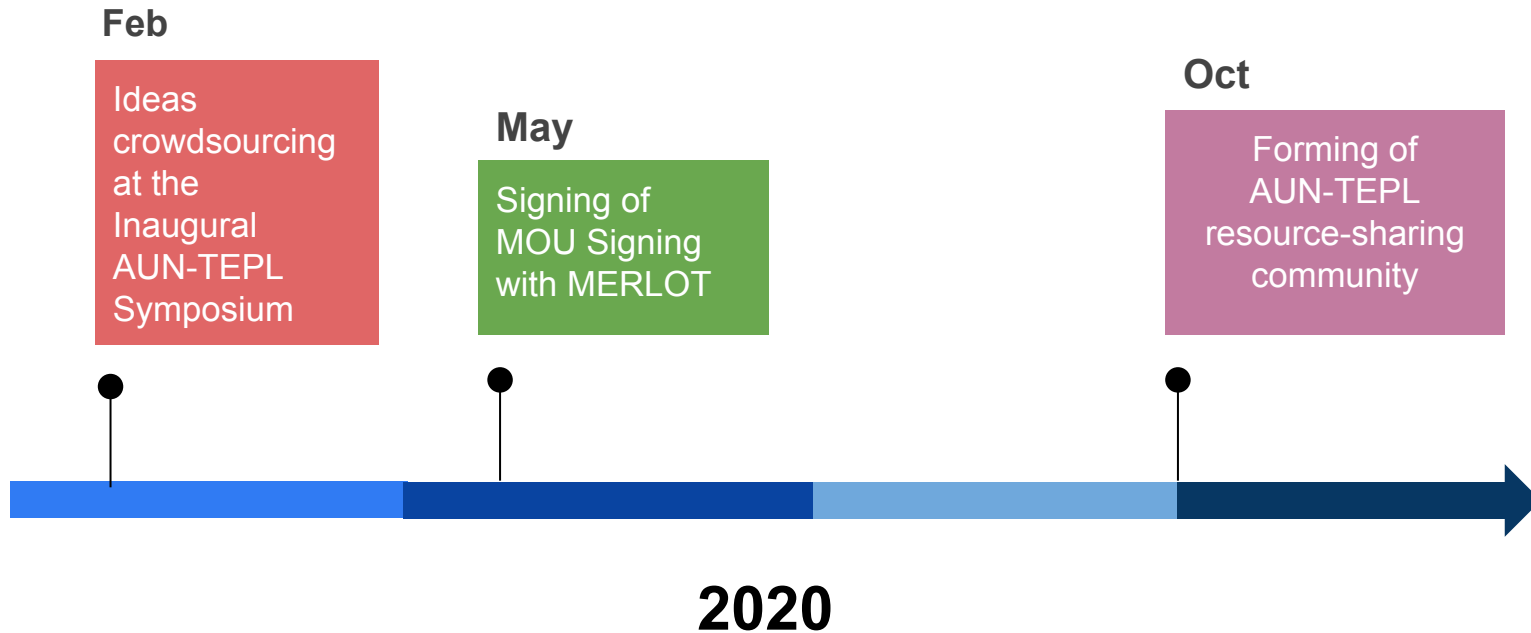

Associate Professor of Operations Management
(Practice)

Chairman, AUN-TEPL Thematic Network
Singapore Management University

Technology Enhanced Personalised Learning
Thematic Network

The Journey of Forming a Resource-sharing Community Within AUN

Enabling the Educational Ecosystem for AUN-TEPL's Success with MERLOT's Open Educational Services

- Incorporating MERLOT into your institutional strategies?
- Best practices in searching, sharing and reviewing AUN-TEPL resources in MERLOT

Dr. Gerry Hanley

Executive Director,
MERLOT and SkillsCommons

Forming the AUNTEPL Resource-sharing Community

- Journey of Forming a Resource-sharing Community Within AUN
- Why MERLOT?
- Resource-sharing Ecosystem in MERLOT (roles)
- Recognition of Contributions Within AUN-TEPL
- User's Story
- Support Structure

Assoc. Prof
Lieven Demeester

Associate Professor of Operations Management
(Practice)
Director, Centre for Teaching Excellence
Singapore Management
University

Practical Considerations for Selecting and Applying Creative Commons Licenses

- How Creative Commons (CC) licenses enable creators to share their work?
- How are Creative Commons licenses related to copyright?
- What are the different types of licenses and the key considerations?
- How to select and applying creative commons licenses when sharing Open Educational Resources (OER) on platforms such as MERLOT?

Ms Melody Chin

Research Librarian
Singapore Management
University

See you again at 10.35am (SGT)